

Sales Tax Delivery Charge Exemption Seminar

The Florida Press Association is sponsoring a seminar regarding a newspaper's collection of Florida sales tax on delivery or transportation charges imposed by their carriers, and on the newspaper's entitlement to the sales tax exemption for such charges. These are important questions because delivery charges are common-place and taxes on them can add up to a substantial sum of money. FPA General Counsel and an expert in the area will provide members with information to help them navigate through the DOR requirements. Lunch will be served.
